HONORING YOUR Roots

Past or Present
Share your family's farming legacy

Southwest Wisconsin was once home to thousands of bustling, hardworking family farms that shaped our communities, our values, and our landscape. We are creating a special keepsake section on December 7th as a part of our Farm Finale feature into The Reminder and Round-Up shoppers to honor these generations of farm families.

Dig out those old black-and-white or faded color photos from the barn, the kitchen table, or the tractor seat. Send us your favorite snapshots of your parents, grandparents, or earlier generations working the land.
