Local candidates file
Spring election approaches
New and returning candidates have filed to run in the upcoming spring election for local leadership roles in Cuba City, Hazel Green, and Boscobel.
Both contested and uncontested races will anticipate to be on the ballot April 7.
Four Cuba City Common Council positions are up for election in April, when residents will also vote for mayor.
In the Village of Hazel Green, there will be three Village Trustee positions and three Southwestern Wisconsin School District School Board of Education seats on the ballot.
Village of Boscobel residents will have the chance to fill three Village Board Trustee seats, and there are two Boscobel School District Board of Education members up for reelection.
Cuba City School District
The seats of Cuba City School District School Board's current president, Gary Andrews, and clerk, Megan Hinderman, are up for election April 7.
While Hinderman is not seeking reelection, Andrews is running to maintain his seat this spring, said C.C.S.D. Business Manager Heather Diederich.
Kyle Kren and Carl W. Thalacker are also seeking seats on the board, based on candidacy paperwork that they filed by the regular submission deadline of Jan. 6 at 5 p.m., said Diederich.
City of Cuba City
Current Common Council member Ald. Tim Hazen is running unopposed for mayor this spring. Current Mayor John Van de Wiet is not seeking reelection, based on filed candidacy paperwork.
Also on the April ballot will be Cuba City Common Council races.
In Cuba City District 1, Ald. Ryan Gerhardt is not seeking reelection. Christine A. Hicks has filed candidacy paperwork for this seat, said City Clerk-Treasurer Jill Hill.
In Districts 3 and 4, incumbents Ald. Frank Rupp and Ald. Kia Hendrickson (respectively), are seeking reelection. Neither face challengers, Hill noted.
No one filed to run as a candidate to represent District 2 on the Common Council. District 2 incumbent Ald. Harvey Morley is not seeking reelection, so "if we aren't able to fill the seat with a write-in candidate following the election, the mayor will appoint someone," said Hill.
Southwestern Wisconsin School District
A total of three Southwestern Wisconsin School District school board members are up for election April 7.
